In the following, these cards, tickets and passes are collectively referred to as "ticket".
- 0.2. The following general terms and conditions are agreed upon to regulate the contractual relationship - between the customers and the respective selling company - in connection with these offers.

1. Validity, changes of the terms and conditions

- 1.1. The following terms and conditions (hereinafter also referred to as "GTC") are part of the contract of carriage concluded with us.
- 1.2. We hereby object to any counter-confirmations, counter-offers or other references from you with reference to your terms and conditions. Deviating conditions of yours are only valid if we have confirmed this in writing.
- 1.3. The latest version of our General Terms and Conditions of Business shall also apply to all subsequent business transactions, without this having to be expressly mentioned or agreed upon when they are concluded.
- 1.4. We reserve the right to change these terms and conditions. The amended GTC come into force as soon as we have published them either on the website from every single ski area or under www.osttirol-ski.at or have made them accessible in any other way and apply to all legal transactions concluded after the GTC have come into force.
- 1.5. You may only assign claims from legal transactions concluded with us with our express consent. Resale, transfer, etc. of tickets to third parties is expressly prohibited.

- 2.2. Information on prices and scope of services is available on request at our cash desks.
- 2.3. The individual services which the respective ticket entitles the user to make use of are provided by legally independent companies. The company selling the ticket acts for the other entrepreneurs only as its representative. Therefore, only the company in whose (ski) area an incident occurs is obliged to provide the individual services and for the consequences of possible incidents; contractual claims (e.g.: from the piste safety or transport) can therefore only be made against the company in whose (ski) area an incident has occurred.

3. Ticket refund

- 3.1. Multi-day tickets are only valid on consecutive days. An interruption is not possible, except in the case of subscriptions.
- 3.2. Subsequent exchange, extension or postponement of the period of validity is not possible.
- 3.3. Even in the case of multi-day tickets and season tickets, there is no entitlement to a (pro rata) refund of the fee after a sports accident or in the event of illness or other reasons. Any refunds are goodwill payments and do not constitute a legal claim for the future.

The prerequisites for such goodwill payments are:

- The ticket must be deposited immediately after the accident at one of our ticket offices;
- The presentation of a medical certificate no later than the third day after the sports accident or the onset of the illness.

- 3.4. A refund for day tickets is not possible under any circumstances.
- 3.5. Lost tickets are not replaced.
- 3.6. There is no entitlement to an extension or refund of the ticket in the event of external influences, such as bad weather, unforeseen departure, interruption of operations, officially ordered closures or stoppages, closure of slopes, weather-related shutdown of cable car facilities in the event of force majeure (in particular storm, danger of avalanches), etc.
- 3.7. We expressly point out that, due to the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, it is possible that at any time, officially (re)ordered closures or stoppages of individual cable car facilities, individual or all partner companies, entire regions, the borders to foreign countries, etc. may occur (as already happened in spring 2020). 4. Restrictions due to the global COVID-19 pandemic

- 4.1. It is a matter of common knowledge that there are worldwide restrictions and limitations in place due to the COVID-19 pandemic, which must also be observed for transportation by cable car facilities and the installations that can be used with the ticket (e.g. distance rules, restrictions on the number of persons carried, regulations on the maximum number of guests, regulations regarding the ticket office, boarding or alighting area, reduction of operating hours, regulations on border controls or border crossings, etc.).

- 4.2. You are hereby expressly advised that restrictions and limitations on the use of the ticket may occur at any time due to official orders or legal regulations, which may result, for example, in delays in transportation, refusal of access (reaching the maximum number of guests), premature termination of service, failure to reach facilities, etc.
- 4.3. No claims or demands against the respective selling company are possible on the basis of these or comparable restrictions and limitations on the use of the ticket either.
